But here in Equal Rites, the 3rd book in the (vast) series, things pick up! The story is much more focused and has great main characters, so despite some messiness toward the end, it's a charming read. In Equal Rites, a dying wizard intends to pass along his powers to a newborn baby... but the expected boy is actually a girl. Unfortunately for the wizard, what's done is done, and his powers flow into baby Eskarina, known as Esk as she grows up.
