Graphic Design, Referenced: A Visual Guide to the Language, Applications, and History of Graphic Design. It is both painful and cathartic to admit this in print and in the very first sentence of our introduction: This book is one of the hardest, most challenging, and most stressful projects we've undertaken. One part was simply the physical and logistical implications we experienced- writing close to 115,000 words, gathering more than 2,500 images and their respective release forms, and ...

Simon Halfon unpacks the visual references in his album artwork for Oasis, The Who and George Michael. As his retrospective book Cover to Cover is published, the graphic designer picks out five of his favourite covers from an illustrious 40-year career. Simon Halfon began his career in the post room at Stiff Records in 1980 before working his way to the art department, and then a stint at The Face with Neville Brody.
