JAZZ EXERCISES MINUETS ETUDES & PIECES FOR PIANO PDF

FOR THE JAZZ PIANIST. EXERCISE SIX AND MINUET SIX The left hand pattern now enters the form of boogie woogie. This is a very important exercise and should be thoroughly learned before any other lines are attempted against the left hand. Incidentally this should represent a great challenge from this aspect because it is fairly difficult to move the right hand time to any depth against a bass line that is quite busy such as the one provided.o:

Oscar Peterson: Jazz Exercises, Minuets, Etudes and Pieces ...

Hanon is super repetitive, but Peterson's exercises are not. The Peterson's exercises get harder as you go along the book. Each exercise is followed by a minuet. Each etude is followed by a piece. This book is smart in the pieces that are arranged. You can pull some riffs out of the scores/pieces for your jazz impoverishment as well. Overall, this jazz exercise book is one of the best I've encountered.
