There is no comparison between this and the original 'We're Going On A Bear Hunt'. The illustration graphics in this run off are really very bad, the tale is truncated missing out two adventures along the way and the illustrated pages at the end are in the wrong order. Making it a lion hunt is a good idea, but once you've read the original it ...

Description. This charming version of a well-known chant takes place on the African savanna. "We're going on a lion hunt. We're going to catch a big one. We're not scared. Been there before." In this beautifully illustrated rendition of a well-known children's chant, two sisters are looking not for a bear, but for a lion -- a lion that lives on the African savanna, where the girls go through swishy swashy long grass, a splishy splashy lake, and a Big Dark Cave.
